SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1865.

JEFF. DAVIS.

Never in the history of the world have such "great expectations" come out so slimly as have the calculations of the "ruling race." As a whipped rebellion, they could have looked upon the matter with a sort of satanic dignity; but to think of "The President of the Southern Confederacy," the pink of chivalry, the high-toned leader of the South, skulking away in petticoats; trying to save his worthless life under crinolines is too much for even his heretofore devoted friends to stand. They know it looks too Fallstaffian to admit of excuse. Had Jeff. died like a man, it would (they say) have been a fitting ending of his false ambition, but after such bluster about the "cowardly" Yankees, the hyenas of New England, &c., to attempt an escape like a criminal, and to yield like a whipped hound to "the base minions of the Northern despotism," brings the blush of shame to their cheeks, and the tears of shame to their eyes.

It does seem too bad to have such wonderful conceit taken out of them so unmercifully. It does look strange to see a man, on whom they had pinned their chivalric faith firmly, peter out so abominably—to see their pagod become a slave of fear—to see their hero sink beneath the level of a buffer—to see their marble idol prove base clay, and their diamond of the purest lustre turn a worthless paste; but they can only blame themselves. Their high-combed cock has shown himself a dunghill fowl, and as long as memory shall preserve his name from oblivion, he will stand a mark for everlasting scorn, despised by Northern men, hated by his Southern friends, his name will become the by-word and the jeer of all time to come.

Against his dignified retreat, the shafts of ridicule will be turned; sarcasm will strip him of the false romance; ridicule will elevate him to the dignity of Jeremy Twitcher. Some future Shakespeare will paint him much as Falstaff was in his retreat in the buck-basket.

We suggest that some painter, with Southern proclivities, catch the promise of inspiration from the time when Jeff. started after a "bucket of water," and that all the prophecies of dress, scenery, &c., be maintained, and that it be hung up in every house where the accused "stars and bars" have floated, to teach the coming generation the legitimate fruit of Secession. Good-bye, Jeff.,—one more act and you will drop beyond human sight, as you are now beyond honorable recognition.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

The citizens of Quincy held a meeting on Tuesday evening last, and appointed an executive, a finance, and a committee of arrangements, to make preparations for celebrating the ensuing Fourth of July at this place.

The committee, we are informed, have met and partially perfected their arrangements, and the general desire among all appears to be the having such a reunion, as shall reflect credit on the town.

It is the intention, we believe, to have three or four days racing on the Quincy Course, a Barbecue, the Quincy Brass Band, with the other usual ceremonies of reading the Declaration, an Oration, &c. Mr. James E. Edwards, the proprietor of the Plumas House, intends giving a Ball in the evening, and that there may be room, will erect a building 80 by 30. This will afford ample scope for all who may desire to attend the salutory part of the performance.

The accommodations for sleeping and eating, will, under the proposed arrangement, be equal, if not greater than any ever before had in this town.

We should rejoice much to see a celebration at that time, which shall eclipse any ever before held in this country. The times warrant it, and it should be done.

Due notice of the arrangements will be given in a week or two, and all should meet this year and render our natal day memorable.

CARSON APPEAL.—This spicy little daily comes to us with the name of Harry Nichols as editor. That of itself is sufficient to warrant it as being No. 1 in the literary sense; but how is it, Harry? has "genius in pursuit of cash," sent you back to the editorial car again? Our friend McElwain is one of the types. May fortune attend editor and proprietors.

A QUESTION ANSWERED.

The Daily Appeal of the 19th inst., has an article over the signature of "Yuba," which is without comment by the editor, and from its position and the absence of objection, must be taken as the view of that paper on the Senatorial fight now progressing.

We should have taken no further notice of the article than simply to read it, had it not contained a paragraph calling on us to answer. This question: which is asked of us by Yuba, is as follows: Does Plumas county want to make him Senator? Do you not know that you have the best and only route that is entirely free from snow, and that it is only a matter of time when that will be the great Pacific Railroad route. Do you not know further that if the Marysville and Oregon Railroad was built to Chico, that it could be tapped and a road built over the mountainous chapter than it ever can be on the present route from Dutch Flat? Answer, Quincy Union?

We do know that we have the best route for the Pacific Railroad through Plumas county, and we further know that it is only a question of time when the road will be built through the pass at the headwaters of Feather River, but while we know all this, and while we have fought it for years against the influence of the Sac. Union, and its congeners, our efforts have not been seconded by the city which has more interest in dollars than Plumas has in cents in its success. In November, 1862, at the time the late Mr. Judah and Mr. Huntington went down the Middle Fork of Feather River, the Sac. Union published an article in which it semi-officially declared that it was an impossibility to run the road through the canon; that in going through that canon, Messrs. J. & H. had performed a feat never before performed by mortal man. That on some of the bars the miners had to let themselves down by ropes to their work. This article caused many a broad grin among our hardy mountaineers, many of whom we know have performed that very same feat many years since, with fifty pounds upon their back. We characterized that article at the time as being one prejudiced to the building of the Pacific Rail Road;—nay, more, we have never seen any official report from either Judah or Huntington, as to the practicability of a route through the Feather River Pass.

Messrs. Sargent and Marsh accompanied Mr. Judah, from Beckworth Pass as far as Long Valley, and then they came through Quincy, and this reconnaissance was made that Mr. Sargent might have some present knowledge of the route, and could speak by the book on his return to Washington, yet this route was so terrible, there were so many lions in the path, that he never let the Congress of the United States know there was such a place as Feather River, or that there was any other way to get into California, except by Dutch Flat.

But this is foreign to the real question asked by Yuba, whether we want to make Governor Low Senator? Our position on that point is well known, and it was entirely useless to ask us such a question; but our opinion and choice is but that of one man. We do not propose to speak for Plumas; she will speak her will through the Convention; but the correspondent of the Appeal mistakes the temper of our people, if he hopes to make a point for Lewis Cunningham, by personally abusing Gov. Low, as a miser; by sneering at Mr. Sargent, by reflections against Mr. Shannon as being a poor man, and having no interest with the Northern part of the State; by invective against Mr. Phelps for his action in securing the assignment to the companies constructing railroads through Stockton and San Jose to San Francisco, from Sacramento, nor yet by unbottling the vials of his wrath against Mr. Conness, nor yet by "damning with faint praise" Cornelius Cole in his action on the Marysville and Oregon Rail Road Bill. Such a course can gain no friends for the writer, nor for his friends.

Any person who may be elected by the next Legislature as U. S. Senator will suit us, (except he be a copperhead) but our idea of a U. S. Senator is governed by higher motives than to expect him to run a rail road by our door. As to that, it does not trouble us one atom.

We know that the railroad connecting the Sacramento Valley with the Mississippi is bound to come through Plumas, but not until the capital of Sacramento shall have exhausted itself in trying to build one through twenty-foot snow banks. We bide our time, for we know when the road is built through the Sierras, it will be built by those who will care but little how it will effect the price of real estate around Sacramento. We further know that in Mr. Shannon, the northern part of this State had a true friend, and we further know that in John Bidwell she has as staunch and true a defender as ever went to Washington, but a U. S. Senator represents the State, and not a section of it, and such arguments are of little weight as advanced by "Yuba."

During the present feeling of bitterness, we do not think it in good taste to abuse those who stand prominently before the public as candidates for the Senate. We do not care to echo the cry of short hair or long hair. We have our choice. We believe him to be honest and true. If he is not we should not hesitate an instant to drop him, but while advocating his claims in a quiet way, we do not desire to see him elevated by blackening or traducing the public or private characters of his competitors. Gov. Low would represent California in the Senate with dignity and ability; so would Cornelius Cole; so would Jesse O. Goodwin or A. A. Sargent, or T. B. Phelps, or Lewis Cunningham, or so would many others less prominently named for that place, but while we have our choice we do not purpose to pull down the well earned reputation of good men, in hopes of thereby succeeding in our personal wish.

LISLE LESTER.—This accomplished lady gave one of her entertainments at Quincy, on Tuesday evening last, and had a very fair audience.

Her Widow Bedott was laughter provoking, but to our judgment she excels in such pieces as "The Bridge of Sighs," and "all quiet along the Potomac to-night." She is an excellent reader, and her rendering of the selection show a good command over her own voice, as well as a truthful conception of the spirit of her subject.

We cordially recommend her to the public, and bespeak for her full houses and just encouragement.

She has gone to Susanville, and intends returning in a short time, via Taylorville, where she will give one of her entertainments.

VERY LIKELY.—Says the Appeal: The Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post says that, strange as it may seem, some of the Richmond rebels have already made application for office under the present administration. This is probably true, for nothing short of death can put an end to rebel fondness for getting their fingers into the public portmanteau. We should not be surprised to hear of C. R. Street, Aleck Montgomery, or Tod Robinson, asking for office under President Johnson, The Copperheads have all cast-iron gloves and would take most anything.

Oh, no! we guess not! From the talk we have heard around here, we judge that some of them are willing to bury the hatchet, and compromise by taking the offices, as a proof of their patriotism.

THE GREAT RACE.—The long talked of race between Norfolk and Lodi came off recently, near San Francisco, Norfolk winning the race and purse. The time made shows Norfolk the best two-miler now living. They are to have a bout at four-mile heats, soon. Norfolk is a son of the celebrated Kentucky horse, Lexington, and Lodi is of the Yorkshire stock.

TARGET SHOOTING.—The result of the match between the Marysville and Oroville military companies, resulted in Marysville taking the first prize, (a life sized portrait of Lincoln.)

Wonder whether at this match, the Local of the Express got located within a brick house and iron doors, as he did once upon a time when the Turnverreins, went out to have a good time.

THE STATE FAIR for the ensuing year is to be held on the 11th of September, and it is expected that it will be one of the greatest successes ever known. The Society expect to award thirteen thousand dollars in purses and premiums to exhibitors, of which six thousand will be for racing, to be made up by the citizens, while the premiums for articles otherwise exhibited will be paid out of the proceeds of the exhibition.—[See.]

GOOD REASONS.—A man has declined being a candidate for office in one of the new States, because he is not a legal citizen—has never paid a tax or any other debt—owns no property—can't read or write—is blind—has but one leg—has lost ten fingers from the left hand—has ten children, and can't leave home for fear they will abuse their mother.

THE World's Fair for 1867 will be at Paris, and the building for it will cost over $6,000,000. The building will be made to hold 200,000 people, and everything will be on the grandest and most liberal scale possible. All Paris is talking of it and making plans for it so soon.

THE Union State Central Committee has been called to meet in San Francisco on the 28th of next month. One of its duties will be to call a State Convention to nominate a candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court in place of Chief Justice Sanderson, whose term expires on the 31st of December next.

The interview between General Grant and Secretary Seward, in the apartment of the latter, was very affecting. Mr. Seward grasped General Grant's hand, exclaiming, "Thank God you are alive!"

Speaker Colfax, Richardson the correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune who for a long time was an inmate of rebel prisons, and other notables, are about crossing the plains for Oregon and other points on this coast.

STATE CONVENTION.

A correspondent of the Sac. Union, and also another in the Marysville Appeal, declare that the State Central Committee intend nominating a candidate for Supreme Judge. We trust such a rumor is without any foundation in fact. Such an act of our agents would be repudiated. It is not within the scope of their powers, for if they have that power they have precisely the same power to nominate two years hence, a full State ticket. We know not whom they might select, and we care not, but such a desire (if they have it) will as certainly defeat their pet (if they have one) as it is certain that the sun shines. The State Central Com. really is governed by San Francisco interests, and the people of this State have no desire that that city shall repeat the miracle of the serpent of Aaron, and swallow up the rest of the interests of the State. We yield great respect to the wealth, energy and intelligence of the bay city, but she is not California, and must not undertake the job of controlling the balance of the State.

The Supreme Bench is intended to protect the interest of the whole people. San Francisco now has four of the five Judges, and we think honestly that is as much as she is entitled to. The initiatory letter of certain San Francisco lawyers has already prejudiced Sanderson's chances, and if there is any truth that the State Central Committee are to complete the design of that letter, it will be very apt to recoil with telling effect on him.

If such a proposition has been made to the Committee, it has not come to our knowledge in Plumas, and we cannot believe that our State Central Committee have designed the accomplishment of any such project; if they have, they are usurping power and authority which the people will not stand. Let the press throughout the State speak out and condemn any such action.

It is true that the expense of a State Convention is great, but that is no excuse for such an assumption of power on the part of the Committee, more particularly as in the choice of the Committee. Such a proposition was not dreamed of; it is dangerous ground for the Committee to venture on, and we warn them off. It is an encroachment on the rights of the people which will not be tamely submitted to.

The people want to have a say as to who their choice may be for the office, and they will have their say, through a convention.

WHEN Jeff. Davis' untimely capture in crinolines came to the ears of a wag in our hearing, he exclaimed that the Confederacy must be reduced to its last shift.—[Ex.]

If so, then the Confederacy is now shiftless, if not bootless.

"Grim visaged war has smoothed his wrinkled front, and now, instead of mounting barbed steeds to fright the souls of fearful adversaries, he capers nimbly in a crinoline."

NEWSPAPER READING OUT WEST.—The Chicago Tribune, of April 10th, states that 53,000 copies of its daily edition were struck off the day before. For the preceding week the average daily edition was 44,000.

THE SUN'S CHASED WAY THE SNOW.

BY LEWLEY.

'Tis here! The lovely Spring is here!
With song bird and sweet flowers,
Whose voice and odor fills the air,
Fresh out of woodland bowers.

The sun, he runs his course more high,
And makes a longer day;
He looks down pleased with lingering eye,
And seems to want to stay.

The quail, his favorite log mounts on,
To get a good survey
And as the East breaks into morn,
Salutes the "king of day."

The Jay bird, chattering, hove around,
And sails from tree to tree;
Seeing such joy in all things found,
Thinks he, too, pleased should be.

The little "red-top" cries "wee teet,"
And slipping, eyes the brush,
To see if Spring has coaxed the moth
To sleep out on the bush.

The stately robin runs the grass,
And takes the chances both,
Of red-top's chasing from the brush,
And he, from grass, the moth.

And when the poor moth breaks and flies,
The red breast quick gives chase—
When catching it, he mounts a limb,
And unto God sings grace.

Poor red-top, looking blank dismay,
Philosophizes right;
He flies straight to the service bush,
That blooms now all in white;

And there, amid its fragrance sweet,
The moth's mate soon he meets;
He raps it gently on the back,
And then sings out, "wee teet."

The manzanita's lovely pink,
So pleasing to the eye,
Whose petals filled with honey dew,
The humming-bird sips nigh.

The humming-bird now soars on high,
Now dangles swoops headlong,
And as he swiftly passing by,
He sings his whirring song.

He lights and shakes his plumage gay,
Then bills his glossy wing;
Then turning eyes up to the sun,
Says, "What a lovely Spring."

The mountain ivy ever-green
Has donated its black dress;
And bees among its flowery robes,
Their nimble limbs do press.

They running, rolling, tumbling o'er
So quick, they take no rest,
Until they find their rustling legs,
In flower dust well dressed.

The little squirrel looks at the sun,
And wonders where he's been
So long, leaving him for three months,
So snug and tight snowed in.

He frisks his tail and looks so spry,
You see the pleasure in his eye
That bright Spring flowers are blooming nigh,
And Winter bleak has all gone by.

The lofty pine in brighter green,
Smiles on the flowers below;
And joins all nature's glad refrain—
The sun's chased 'way the snow!

WE STILL WILL BE FREE.

BY LEWLEY.

Written on hearing some "peace-at-any-price"
men crying loud against the draft.

Oh, hark! What warning voice is near?
It seems to be of distant worlds,
Where all to us is dark.

"Voice," once to us and name still dear,
'Tis Washington's, hark! hark!

The Appeal.
O, sons of Columbia! whose forefathers bled,
Why stand ye aloof whilst the battle-field is red
With the blood of thy dearest by traitors fresh shed?

Rise! rise in this might, ere thou raisest the dead!

The Call.
Columbia's sons, come join us,
Grasp each other's hand;
Our country's father calls us,
Quick, for the "valiant band."

Oh! who are so faint-hearted,
To feign not hear the call?
Or love their bosoms parted,
To halt their country's fall?

Response.
Not us! not us! we never can be bought!
Our souls are filled with burning indignation at the thought.

No! we shall our goddess be
To blushes by us brought—
We still will be free.

Chorus—We still will be free, we still will be free,
Let the stars float aloft—
For we still will be free.
Nelson Point, 1865.

Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla.

Of the worst diseases that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the diseases that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and restores the blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the diseases that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on as long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public are enabled to obtain it. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its efficacy, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

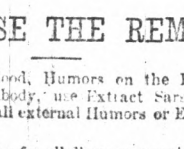

HELMBOLD'S

Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla.

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Hot Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

The above Extracts are prepared on purely scientific principles. From the strength of the full strength of the ingredients entering into their composition. A ready and effective cure will be a comparison of their properties with those of the acids in the U. S. Dispensary.

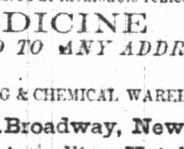

HELMBOLD'S

Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla.

In Diseases of the Blood, Humors on the Face, or any and every part of the body, use Extract Sarsaparilla, applying to Pimples and all external Humors or Eruptions the Improved Rose Wash.

Use the Extract Buchu for all diseases requiring the aid of a Diuretic, except those of the Urinary Organs, such as Gonorrhea and Gleet; in these use the Extract Buchu and inject with the Improved Rose Wash.

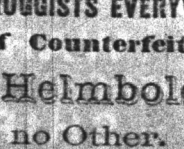

HELMBOLD'S

Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla.

THESE EXTRACTS HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO USE IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY, and also in very general use in all the STATE HOSPITALS AND PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and are considered as invaluable remedies.

HAPPINESS OR MISERY.

THAT is the QUESTION.

THE PROPRIETORS OF THE "PACIFIC MUSEUM OF ANATOMY AND SCIENCE" determined, regardless of expense, to issue FREE (for the benefit of suffering humanity) four of the most interesting and instructive LECTURES, on "MORPHOLOGY AND ITS DISQUALIFICATIONS: NERVUS DEBILITAS, Premature Decline of Manhood, Indigestion, Weakness or Depression, Loss of Energy and Vital Power, the great Social Evil, and those maladies that result from youthful follies, excesses of nativity, or ignorance of Physiology and Nature's Laws.

These invaluable Lectures have been the means of enlightening and saving thousands, and will be forwarded FREE on receipt of Twenty-five Cents in postage stamps, by addressing "Secretary Pacific Museum of Anatomy and Science, Pine Street San Francisco."

DR. J. M. MORENO'S

Medical & Surgical

INSTITUTE,

San Francisco.

No. 619.....KEARNEY STREET.

Corner Commercial Street.

Established in 1852 for the permanent cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, and for the Suppression of Quackery.

DR. J. M. MORENO,

Formerly of Valparaiso,

Attending & Resident Physician.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION PAID TO THE treatment of Diseases of Women and Children. Communications strictly confidential, and all our respondents promptly answered. Consultations by letter or otherwise FREE.

To those who are Afflicted.

DR. J. M. MORENO returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his Institute for the cure of chronic diseases, such as Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Nocturnal Emissions, and the consequences of self-abuse. In the first stages of syphilis or gonorrheal diseases, he guarantees a cure in a few days without inconvenience to the patient, or hindrance to his business. When a patient by neglect or improper treatment, has developed the secondary symptoms of syphilis, such as painful swellings on the glands, or ulcers in the throat and nose, which if not checked, destroy the soft parts and close the bones to mortify, separate and come away, leaving the sufferer an object of ridicule to be held, or when blotches and pimples break out on the skin, or when he has painful swellings upon the bones, or when his constitution is injured so as to predispose to consumption or other constitutional disease, the Doctor guarantees a cure or asks no compensation. In rheumatism, chronic or acute, in dyspepsia or indigestion, in nervous debility, in loss of appetite, loss of memory, injury to the sight, restlessness, confusion of ideas, dislike for society, or in any other ailment, he guarantees a cure, or asks no compensation. He can be consulted free of charge, and invites all to call, as it will cost nothing and may be much to their advantage. Office hours from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.

Spermatorrhoea.

Or local weakness, nervous debility, low spirits, insatiable weakness of the limbs and back, indisposition and inability for labor and study, difficulty of apprehension, loss of memory, aversion to society, loss of confidence, timidity, self-doubt, dizziness, headache, involuntary discharges, pains in the side, affection of the eyes, dimples on the face, sexual debility, and in many other cases, which are not mentioned, he guarantees a cure, or asks no compensation. He can be consulted free of charge, and invites all to call, as it will cost nothing and may be much to their advantage. Office hours from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.

No Necessity for a Personal Interview.

Persons residing at a distance who find it inconvenient to leave their business and visit the Doctor at his office, by sending a full and minute description of their complaints, together with ten dollars, can have their medicines forwarded to any part of the Pacific coast, together with full directions for use, without charge for medicine.

A Preventative.

Persons who wish to guard against disease or the natural consequences of the marriage state, can have a preventative forwarded that can be relied upon at all times, by sending two dollars in advance in a letter directed to Dr. Moreno, Box 123, P. O., San Francisco.

Certificate for Dr. Moreno.

"This is to certify that having suffered for a long time and almost without hope of recovering my health, from Secondary Syphilis, and that after consulting many eminent Physicians, without receiving any relief, placed myself under treatment of Dr. J. M. MORENO, and that by his skillful and a judicious treatment, he, in a comparatively short time, not only effected a perfect cure of my disease and restored me to my usual health, but also effected all traces of my unhappy malady. Therefore, I recommend to all suffering from the same cause, to apply at once to Dr. Moreno, where they are sure to receive all the attention and help a skillful physician is able to render."

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of April, A.D. 1863.

A. G. RANDALL, Notary Public.

State of California, county of San Francisco.

Medical Advice.

Without intending to particularize any from among the many distinguished physicians of this city, we cannot avoid referring to the successful treatment of cases which have come under our observation, by Dr. W. K. Doherty, No. 521 Sacramento Street, San Francisco, and the gratitude felt towards that gentleman by those who a short time ago, were tottering to the grave, and are now in the enjoyment of health and happiness, freed alike from their poisonous affections, and the equally deadly effects of vile drugs. That their gratitude was sincere, we have the highest doubt as to whether they regret for having wasted so much of their time and money on some of the old school physicians, without a particle of benefit resulting therefrom. We do not think we could better express the public good than by advising all who are afflicted to give Dr. Doherty a call.—San Francisco News.

FLY KILLING LIQUID

FLY PAPER KILLS ITS THOUSANDS.—THE Liquid Fly-Killer kills its tens of thousands! This preparation for killing flies gives the greatest satisfaction of anything ever used. It is so improved to the highest killing point. It is of such a nature and so speedy in its effects, that the flies will not spot the walls and windows, which makes the use of other preparations so objectionable.
